Senate Seeks Compromise On Labor Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate agreed after a long and heated wrangle today to send the tough House labor bill to a congressional conference committee to see if a compromise with the milder Senate version can be worked out.

Republican senators who favor the House bill did not press a move, favored by some, to bypass the joint House-Senate conference and force an immediate showdown on the Senate floor.

But they kept the Senate tied

Hitchhiker Suspected In Man's Beating

A Sausalito executive opened the door of his apartment to terror yesterday after playing good samaritan to a hitchhiker.

Beaten about the head with a steam iron by the man who rapped at the door was Raymond A. Shaffer, 34, of 113 Caledonia street, apartment 6, an executive secretary for A. G. Schoonmaker Co. He was reported in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital.

Shaffer was found bleeding and unconscious behind his home at 2:55 a.m. by Sausalito police, responding to a report from a neighbor that he heard "a thumping noise" and a cry for help.

TELLS STORY After regaining consciousness, he told a tale of an act of kindness that led to terror.

Shaffer said he picked up a hitchhiker, who identified himself only as "Bob," at Fourth and Mission streets in San Francisco Saturday night.

He hauled "Bob" across the Golden Gate Bridge, and invited him to stop for a beer at the Shaffer apartment.

Bob did so. A little later, he left. Shaffer retired for the night.

Perhaps half an hour later, he said, someone knocked at the door.

NO ANSWER Thinking it was a friend who after called late, Shaffer called out, "Is it Harold?" There was no answer.

Then he thought of the hitchhiker. "Is it Bob?" he called. "Yes," came the answer.

Shaffer opened the door and was knocked to the floor by a blow in the face. As he struggled to rise, he said, his assailant seized a steam iron and began beating him about the head with it.

Shaffer, clad only in shorts, fled through the apartment, pursued and beaten by the intruder. At last he locked himself in the bathroom and crawled out the window, only to fall unconscious on the ground, where police found him.

Meantime, the intruder took his car keys and drove away in the car in which Shaffer had given Bob the ride. It was a borrowed car.

Shaffer said he could not be sure whether the man who assaulted him was the same one to whom he gave the ride.

Police put out an all-points alert based on Shaffer's description of the hitchhiker. Middle-aged, medium-sized, wearing sports clothes.

Trash Receptacles Irrk San Rafael Merchants

By ROSS W. ASHLEY

Thirty-six openwork wire trash receptacles recently placed on corners along San Rafael's Fourth street are not only "keeping San Rafael clean" but are keeping some of its businessmen stirred up as well.

Howls of outrage have been emanating from numerous businessmen, who contend the open baskets are being used for garbage as well as trash and that they draw flies. "They are open garbage cans at our front doors," complained one merchant today.

Roger Darrow, president of the Marin Title Guaranty Co. and owner of the former Bank of America building at Fourth and C streets, said he is "quite shocked."

Darrow said he is investing a substantial amount of money in remodeling the building to make it an attractive asset to downtown San Rafael.

"I certainly don't like to have an open garbage can at the front door," he declared. "I think it is unbecoming to a city of our caliber and I have heard numerous complaints."

Harry Albert, San Rafael property owner and civic leader, added his voice to Darrow's. He called the receptacles "unsanitary and unattractive." They are not used only for trash as they are intended to be used, he said, but are being used for garbage also.

The chains are hazardous, too, Albert said, noting that pedestrians may trip over them.

CAUGHT IN ACT

Runaway Equips Herself At Expense Of Others

A pint-sized burglar attempting to loot a Kentfield home of a box of 30 pennies, costume jewelry and two suitcases of children's clothing—admittedly for the purpose of "running away from home"—was caught in the act Friday when the family returned from a week's vacation.

The suitcases, fully packed with more of the Hall youngsters' clothing were found in the basement and in the nearby creek bed.

Sheriff's deputies turned the youngster over to juvenile authorities and notified her parents.

County Tax Rate To Drop 7 Cents

Man Badly Hurt In Brawl; 2 Accused

$2.23 Set As Basic Figure

Marin County's basic tax rate for 1959-60 will be $2.23 per $100 assessed valuation — down seven cents from last year's rate.

Officers said members of the Portuguese society told them the trouble was started by a group of teen-age party crashers.

About 10 of the dancers named Young and the 17-year-old as being among the ring-leaders. Several also named Touchstone. He reacted violently, attempting to assault those who had identified him with the brawl, officers said.

Sheriff's deputies later found Youth hiding under a car a block from his home. The 17-year-old showed up at his home in Marin City.

LIGHT DRIZZLE RECORDED IN CORTE MADERA

A heavy overcast shrouded Marin County this morning, but rain was recorded only at Corte Madera. A light drizzle began falling there at 10:20 a.m.

High and low temperatures around the county yesterday were 63 and 56 at Woodacre, 66 and 56 at Novato, 76 and 60 at Stafford Dam, 87 and 58 at San Anselmo, and 70 and 56 at Mill Valley.

The U.S. Weather Bureau in San Francisco reported that elsewhere in California, except for fog and low clouds along the coast, the weather was generally fair.

Woman Still Missing After Big Search

An attractive San Francisco woman, last seen walking along McNear's Beach early Friday, was still missing today despite an intensive weekend air and sea search.

She is Mrs. Helen F. Brandeis, 34-year-old blonde who manages a San Francisco maternity clothes shop.

Her car was found at the beach on Saturday, containing personal effects including a pair of slacks, blouse, underwear, sandals, straw beach hat and a wallet with her driver's license and $21.70 in cash.

Miss Brandeis' mother, Mrs. Margaret Buchstad said her daughter told her Thursday morning that she was going to Marin County for a swim and possibly movie. Mrs. Buchstad added that the missing woman was an excellent swimmer and that she often went to Marin beaches alone.

Marin County sheriff's deputies were alerted by San Francisco police Friday after Mrs. Buchstad reported her daughter missing.

A search of the area turned up the car and at least two witnesses who said they had seen the woman on the beach.

Mike Birckes, caretaker at the beach resort, and an unidentified woman living at the

AFL-CIO Chiefs Meet To Study Labor Bill

FOREST PARK, Pa. (P)—Top leaders of organized labor gathered today to nurse political wounds from their recent labor bill defeat in Congress and to consider interunion conflict.

Members of the AFL-CIO Executive Council—the federation's high command—mapped plans to try to salvage the best bill possible from the union viewpoint between Senate and House-passed versions.

The union leaders like neither one, but prefer the Senate Bill sponsored by Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) and Sam J. Ervin Jr. (D-N.C.) over the House bill by Reps. Phil M. Landrum (D-Ga.) and Robert P. Griffin (R-Mich.). The House bill is supported by President Eisenhower.

Federation leaders already were talking of stepping up political action plans to try to defeat in the 1960 election many of the members of the Democratic-Republican coalition which formed to put over the Landrum-Griffin House bill last week.

Labor leaders are growing cool to the Democratic party, one member of the AFL-CIO high command told newsmen.

This official said privately that union leaders feel the Democrats, with almost a two-thirds majority of House and Senate, did not exercise the political control available to them.

Competitive jurisdictional feuds between AFL-CIO unions have been growing. A number of unions have been thumbing their noses at jurisdictional awards made under the AFL-CIO no-raid machinery and by the AFL-CIO Executive Council.

There seems to be some disposition to change the no-raid machinery so that special consideration could be given in the future to accommodate groups of workers who want to switch unions.

As things stand now, the union has traditionally represented a worker group in a given plant or industry must continue to do so under the no-raid plan. But the National Labor Relations Board has been insisting, in a series of decisions, that the workers be assured their legal right to change unions if they so desire.

UNFAITHFUL DOG LANDS TWO IN JAIL

MIAMI, Fla. (P)—Two men and their not-so-faithful dog are in the lockup today, charged with robbing telephone boxes.

Detective Mike O'Brien said the German shepherd stood watch for Lynn Waldon Swink, 21, and Robert Richard Banks, 22.

But the dog didn't let out a woof when a deputy crept up and caught the men rifling a phone booth.

AF Probing Double Crash Of Jet Planes

NEW BOSTON, N. H. (UPI)—The Air Force today investigated an unusual double crash in which two jet planes from the same California air base went down only a few miles apart.

Although the twin accidents occurred about the same time Saturday, the Air Force said yesterday there was no evidence that the F100 Super Saber fighters collided.

One pilot, Capt. Russell A. Nelson of Big Springs, Tex., was killed when his parachute failed to open after he had ejected himself from his plane.

The other pilot, Capt. James Howard of George Air Force Base, floated down safely and was picked up by the state police.

The two planes belonged to the same group and were flying in formation when trouble hit both aircraft.

Flamingo Inn Hearing Delayed

A state liquor control board hearing on charges against the Flamingo Inn, 2007 Bridgeway, Sausalito, Friday, was continued until Sept. 28. The tavern owners are charged with operating a hangout for sexual perverts.

The continuation of the case was granted to give attorney Richard Gladstein more time to prepare his defense. The state's case against the tavern owners was completed yesterday.

Yo-Yo Champ's Work Has Its Ups, Downs

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (UPI)—Yo-Yo champ Herb Carter has a stock answer for people who ask him if he's in his second childhood.

"Listen buddy," he says, "this business has its ups and downs—like sometimes I vacation in South America and sometimes I got to be satisfied with a new car."

Herb, who is in his early 30's, is actually one of the several Yo-Yo champions in the country. Employed as a sales promotion manager in the New England area, for a Yo-Yo company, he has a most serious opinion of a business that has its ludicrous aspects.

"Yo-Yo teaches a kid a sense of fair play," he said. "It's a great game in which the individual is important; one might say it's indicative of our democratic way of life."

Herb has performed his Yo-Yo legerdemain throughout the world—he's entertained Vice President Nixon's children and the Prince of Indonesia, among others.

"I was all set to do my act in Cuba—but this Castro guy took over and we weren't sure how he'd react to a Yo-Yo. So we cancelled."

Carter, who has been spinning a Yo-Yo for eight years, says that "they go crazy for them overseas. Maybe it's because of the better way in which they promote stuff like this—anyway in South America it was nothing unusual to see ads in the papers proclaiming: 'Llegó el Yo-Yo, Caballeros' or 'Play Yo-Yo, fellas.'

Carter goes from place to place with a crew or by himself, organizing contests and baffling youngsters with his bag of tricks.

"And the Yo-Yo is getting better every day in this age of modern design," he says with a grin. "Like this expensive model with the aluminum-engineered axle. Or this baby with the rhinestones."

So the laughs and the jokes don't bother Herb. "I figure there'll be at least 60,000 kids—and some jokesters too—spinning these jobs in New England by the time I finish up here. That's a lot of green Yo-Yo."

Where to next?

Herb has hopes of getting to Russia one day.

"Like to spin a Yo-Yo for Nikita Khrushchev. I understand he likes to make things dance on a string."

Want To Adopt A Swan? Here's The Place To Go

By GREGORY JENSEN

LONDON (UPI)—Anybody here like to adopt a swan?

The place to apply is Bill Shakespeare's home town, Stratford-on-Avon. In fact, if you wait a while, the way things are going, all England will soon be one big swan adoption agency.

As for Stratford, the place is already lousy with swans, if you pardon the expression—more than 100, in fact.

"They complicate everything," admitted a spokesman for the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

They've complicated Stratford's life, all right. One problem is that the town can't just give away its surplus swans. In the first place, it doesn't even own them—Queen Elizabeth does.

In England, the swan is a "Royal Bird," and nobody can own one except the Queen and a couple of London's ancient guild companies. Everybody else "looks after" the swan in its moat, or river, or garden pond, as if the swans were adopted children.

Stratford can't shoot the swans, either—heaven and the RSPCA forbid! And they can't just round up 50 or so and dump them on somebody else's unsuspecting river—nearly everyone else has the same problem.

At Stratford, on the Norfolk Broads, on Romney Marsh, on the River Thames itself, these graceful long-necked birds are getting to be a pain in the neck.

Auto Overturns; Attorney Hurt

Headlights of an approaching car momentarily blinded Novato attorney Robert D. Carrow, 25, of 95 Mistletoe avenue, as he was driving his small German car last night on South Novato boulevard south of Stowé drive, he reported to the California Highway Patrol.

Carrow said he went off the road to avoid collision and his car rolled over, suffering major damage. Carrow suffered cuts on his scalp and forehead but refused transportation to a hospital and was able to drive his car away.

Wave Recruiter Coming Tomorrow

Lt. Margie Screws, Navy Wave programs officer for Northern California, Nevada and Utah, will be at the San Rafael Navy Recruiting Station, 1116 Fourth street, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. tomorrow to interview and give qualification tests to women interested in Navy service.

They're a menace to navigation.

Swans, being social birds, tend to cluster. Endowed with a follow-the-leader mentality, they do everything at once. And they have to churn up the river for a considerable stretch before they get airborne.

Put those facts together and you can picture the plight of someone in a canoe who rears up from a peaceful paddle to find a solid mass of swans racing straight at him, their five-foot wings flailing the water in a mad, frantic effort to take off.

For weekend sailors and professional rivermen alike, it's no joke. The swans simply get in the way.

Swans are everywhere. Nearly every stretch of water a few yards long has a pair busily breeding away. No nobleman's country house would be complete without a few cygnets growing up in the moat or the private lake.

"As far as nature is concerned, swans lead a pampered life," the RSPCA spokesman said.

"Animals don't prey on them. People have a soft spot for them, and feed them in difficult times when they might otherwise die off."

"Thus they multiply—and (don't tell the queen I said so) they're a bother."

Alert Passerby Prevents Death

An alert passerby yesterday averted a possible suicide by a nick-of-time call to the Mill Valley police.

In answer to an anonymous telephone call at 11:45 a.m. Capt. Joseph Canet sped to the junction of Panoramic highway and Sequoia Valley road, where he found Kenwood Joseph Brouillet, 43, unconscious.

The engine was running and a four-foot piece of garden hose extended from the exhaust pipe into the trunk.

The victim, of 607 Laguna road, Tamalpais Valley, responded to artificial respiration.

Brouillet, a machinist, said he was despondent over two recent arrests in San Francisco for drunken driving and over personal problems, police said.

He was released to his wife, who said she planned to take him to Ft. Miley Veteran's Hospital in San Francisco for treatment.

Cable Car Runs Wild; 4 Injured

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A cable car, loaded with 60 persons, rambled out of control down Powell street yesterday afternoon and smashed into an automobile. Four persons were injured, none seriously.

The cable car pushed the auto out of the way, near Post street and rolled on at reduced speed. It was halted, near O'Farrell street, after conductor William Clifton leaped off in front of the St. Francis Hotel, ran inside and telephoned the Municipal Railway control center to stop the cables.

Three of those hurt were in the auto.

A failure in the mechanism attaching the cable car to the underground cable was blamed for the accident.

So the laughs and the jokes don't bother Herb. "I figure there'll be at least 60,000 kids—and some jokesters too—spinning these jobs in New England by the time I finish up here. That's a lot of green Yo-Yo."

Where to next?

Herb has hopes of getting to Russia one day.

"Like to spin a Yo-Yo for Nikita Khrushchev. I understand he likes to make things dance on a string."

beach in a trailer, both reported having seen Miss Brandeis.

The woman apparently was the last to see her. She told sheriff's deputies that Miss Brandeis was walking along the beach at 6:15 a.m. Friday "in an erratic manner." She was wearing white pedal pushers and a blouse, the witness said.

It was not uncommon, both Birkies and the woman said, for visitors to leave their cars on the beach overnight.

A search of the area Sunday by a helicopter from the 41st Air Rescue Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base, as well as a sea patrol by Coast Guard cutter failed to reveal a trace of the missing woman.

Missing from the personal effects she was known to have had in her possession at the time of her disappearance were a lunch basket, sandals and a beach blanket.

Then he slips on his red contact lenses, which cover only the pupil and iris of the eye, leaving the whites unblodshot looking.

The lenses enable the cheater to read the notations on the backs of the cards, so he knows what his opponents are holding and can win their money.

Olin said that in good light, it is not very difficult to determine if a person is wearing contact lenses, particularly if they are colored. Red lenses often do not seem to be red to the casual observer, but a careful examination will disclose a ruby tint around the pupils.

If there still is doubt, Olin advises looking at the suspect's profile. A tiny telltale bulge in the center of the eye will indicate he is wearing contact lenses.

Then there is the blink test. If the suspect blinks his eyes about 14 times a minute, he probably isn't wearing contact lenses. But if the blink rate is 20 times a minute or more, watch out.

Car Hits Pole; Couple Injured

Mrs. Zelpha S. Jones, 74, of Encinitas, San Diego County, was in fair condition at Marin General Hospital today after suffering forehead cuts, broken ribs and a knee injury Saturday noon in a car-telephone pole crash on Highway 1 five miles north of the Pt. Reyes Petaluma road.

Also in the hospital was her husband John W. Jones, 77, who suffered a broken arm. He was driving the car and told California Highway Patrol officers that he lost control when the wheels ran off on the soft shoulder of the highway.

The car overturned and was considered a total wreck.

Both were taken by ambulance to San Rafael General Hospital. No citation was issued.

Two Injured As Auto Hits Pole

Frank Gass, 19, of 18 Meadow Drive, San Rafael, suffered a gashed head and right knee Saturday and his passenger, Robert Newton, 21, of 13 Ridgeview Lane, Larkspur, was cut above the right eye when a car driven by Gass left the road to crash through several mailboxes and strike a utility pole.

Both were taken by ambulance to San Rafael General Hospital. No citation was issued.

Collision Hurts 2

Miles E. Nuddleman, 18, of Oakland was driving northbound on San Pedro road yesterday afternoon when, according to the California Highway Patrol, his car crossed the center line and collided with a car driven by Herbert Otto Werner Schmid, 47, both drivers suffering slight injury.

Survivors include her husband; two sons, E. Trammell Combs Jr. of the Virgin Islands and Richard Milne, a daughter.

Do Germs Cause Disease?

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

There are many types of germs and all of them have a place in the scheme of things, just as insects, birds, fish and animals are necessary to maintain the balance of nature. You may be a normal healthy man or woman but at this moment there are multitudes of beneficial germs at work within your body.

Without them you would become desperately ill... These are the germs we seldom read about in the newspapers and magazines,

Take as an example the colon bacillus (escherichia coli), a germ which is essential to good health. It breaks down waste matter in the bowels for easier elimination and does other important jobs. Other varieties of germs perform equally important work in other parts of the body. The atmosphere around us is always thick with germs—some good, some bad—but we are not always sick.

Why not?

Resistance to germs and disease depends on the proper functioning of the nervous system, the master system of the body. When the nerve supply to a certain organ is pinched or blocked by a misaligned bone in the spine, the affected organ will lose its resistance. Disease strikes when germs begin to prey on the weakened organ, but the same germs are powerless against a healthy organ.

Often, an organ will regain its strength and fight off disease germs once the interference with its nerve supply is corrected.

Chiropractors are experts in restoring and maintaining nerve function. They do this by finding the nerve interference in the spine and by adjusting the misaligned spinal bone (vertebra) quickly and painlessly by hand. An efficient nervous system is the foundation of good health.

Mercy Flight May Save Cobra Victim

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (UPI)—A four-foot-long Indian cobra bit an employee of a reptile garden near here Sunday. He may live because of a dramatic 1,300-mile flight from Miami, Fla.

The Coast Guard and the Air Force flew anti-cobra serum from Miami to St. Joseph after William White, 32, was bitten. The serum was administered six hours later.

A single drop of cobra venom can be fatal. Usually it takes only four hours to kill, said William H. Haast, operator of the Miami serpentarium.

But the cobra's fangs pierced a sack of heavy material before they hit White on a thumb. The bag apparently absorbed some of the venom.

A hospital attendant said White, who had been bitten about 100 times by non-poisonous snakes during his four years at the reptile garden, remarked as the serum was injected "I knew all the time I'd be okay."

A few minutes after midnight, Dr. C. C. DuMont said White's condition was satisfactory.

"He has a chance to recover," said Dr. DuMont.

The doctor said White experienced some symptoms of cobra poisoning—particularly stiffening of the joints in his legs and low blood pressure.

At White's bedside was his wife, Ruby. They have a daughter, Joy, 10, and a son, Robin, 5.

The owner of the reptile garden, John Flinchbaugh, said White had put the cobra in the heavy bag preparatory to cleaning its cage. It was a routine procedure.

After White was bitten, a telephone call was made to the Miami serpentarium. Flinchbaugh said the Miami place was the only source of anti-cobra serum in the United States. The serum is made in Bombay, India.

While Air Force Lieutenants James H. Ahmann of Louisville, Ky., and Larry Marks of Miami stood by a T33 jet trainer, a Coast Guard helicopter picked up the vial of serum at the serpentarium. Miami police blocked off a highway so the 'copter could set down beside serpentarium.

The jet covered the 1,300 miles from Miami to this city in northwest Missouri in three hours, 48 minutes.

Rockefeller Hints He Might Run

ALBANY, N.Y. (UPI)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said today he might run for president if he could be convinced he could "deal effectively and constructively with problems facing the country."

"I would never decide to be a candidate for higher office unless I was convinced these factors were true," Rockefeller told a news conference.

Asked if the availability of other candidates would influence his decision, he replied:

"I think one can't disassociate any decision from all surrounding factors. I would stress that my own decision be made on a positive basis on terms of opportunity of service which I feel I might be able to perform under certain circumstances."

Fire Destroys 2 Buildings In San Luis Obispo

SAN LUIS OBISPO (UPI)—Fire broke out in downtown San Luis Obispo today and destroyed two buildings.

Leaping flames attracted hundreds of pre-dawn spectators and caused a traffic jam.

There was no official estimate of the damage, but one newsman guessed it would run into several hundred thousand dollars.

The fire destroyed a bowling alley and an adjacent auto equipment store.

Cause of the fire was not determined.

RESEARCHER THINKS HE HAS WEAPON AGAINST AUTO SMOG

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A research engineer from India thinks he has found an effective weapon against smog-producing auto exhaust.

After two years of experimentation at UCLA, Dr. Srinivasa Sourirajan reports he has discovered a chemical catalyst which breaks down and eliminates two of the gases mainly responsible for smog.

The catalyst is copper oxide. Dr. Sourirajan says it decomposes nitric oxide and oxidizes hydrocarbons, the two main smog-causing gases.

His next step is to try to design an apparatus which will make use of the catalyst inside the combustion chamber of an automobile engine. His research is supported by a state grant.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

10 Years Ago We Had Ferry Strike Instead Of A Bridge

Last week an item in the 10 Years Ago column on this page caught our eye. It referred to the strike on the San Rafael-Richmond Ferry, which went on for months, and the hope that it could be brought to an end soon.

And this recalled an editorial which had appeared in this space about that time. We thumbed through the back files to find out what we had said. It was on Sept. 19, 1949, entitled:

"North Bay Bridge—"

It was a lengthy editorial but some of its comments are interesting today:

In recent months it has become increasingly clear that the futures of Marin and Contra Costa Counties will be more closely intertwined as time goes by.

The crippling ferry strike, for instance, has pointed up the recent growth in the numbers of people who live in Marin and commute to the East Bay . . .

So it is natural that men's thoughts should turn again to the idea of a bridge linking Marin and Contra Costa, with the idea that Marin will develop a residential area for people employed in the East Bay industries.

Neither the distance nor the depth offer anywhere near the engineering problems of the Golden Gate or the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridges.

Presumably one long suspension span of something around 1,200 feet, approached over causeways in shallow water, would suffice . . .

It is reasonable to expect a bridge from the first day it opens would carry more traffic than the ferries have ever known.

SAVES SOLDIER BY MASSAGING HEART

Quick thinking on the part of an air force intern saved a sergeant's life recently. The young doctor opened the airman's chest in an impromptu operation and massaged his heart.

Another patient had called for help when he saw the sergeant in an obviously critical condition.

The intern, who came running to the scene, immediately decided that drastic measures were necessary. He saw that the stricken man was suffering from a heart condition that prevented the muscle from beating normally.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

Columnist Shares With Readers Information Gleaned From Mail

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

You think your wife is expensive? Mme. Pompadour, famous 18th century French mistress, is reported to have spent $100,000 a year on perfume alone, just to smell nice for King Louis XV. Feeling tired and rundown? Why not try a wonder drug popular with the ancient Greeks? They thought you'd have good health and long life if you drank a potion of wine, cloves, and hippopotamus fat. Either red or white wine will do, but be sure the hippopotamus fat is properly chilled.

How times change! Comic George de Witt says he saw a late movie on television that was so old the Germans were bad guys!

The Schick electric razor people just got a shock. A poll they made disclosed 200,000 U.S. men now wear beards, and the number is growing.

Latest fad-of-the-week in Greenwich Village? Dyeing eyebrows a color different from the hair.

When you enter a store for the first time, in which direction do you turn? About 79 per cent of Americans instinctively turn to the right.

Facts that will get you nowhere: You spend as much energy in opening and closing your eyes in a year as it would take to hoist an 8-year-old child to your shoulder once.

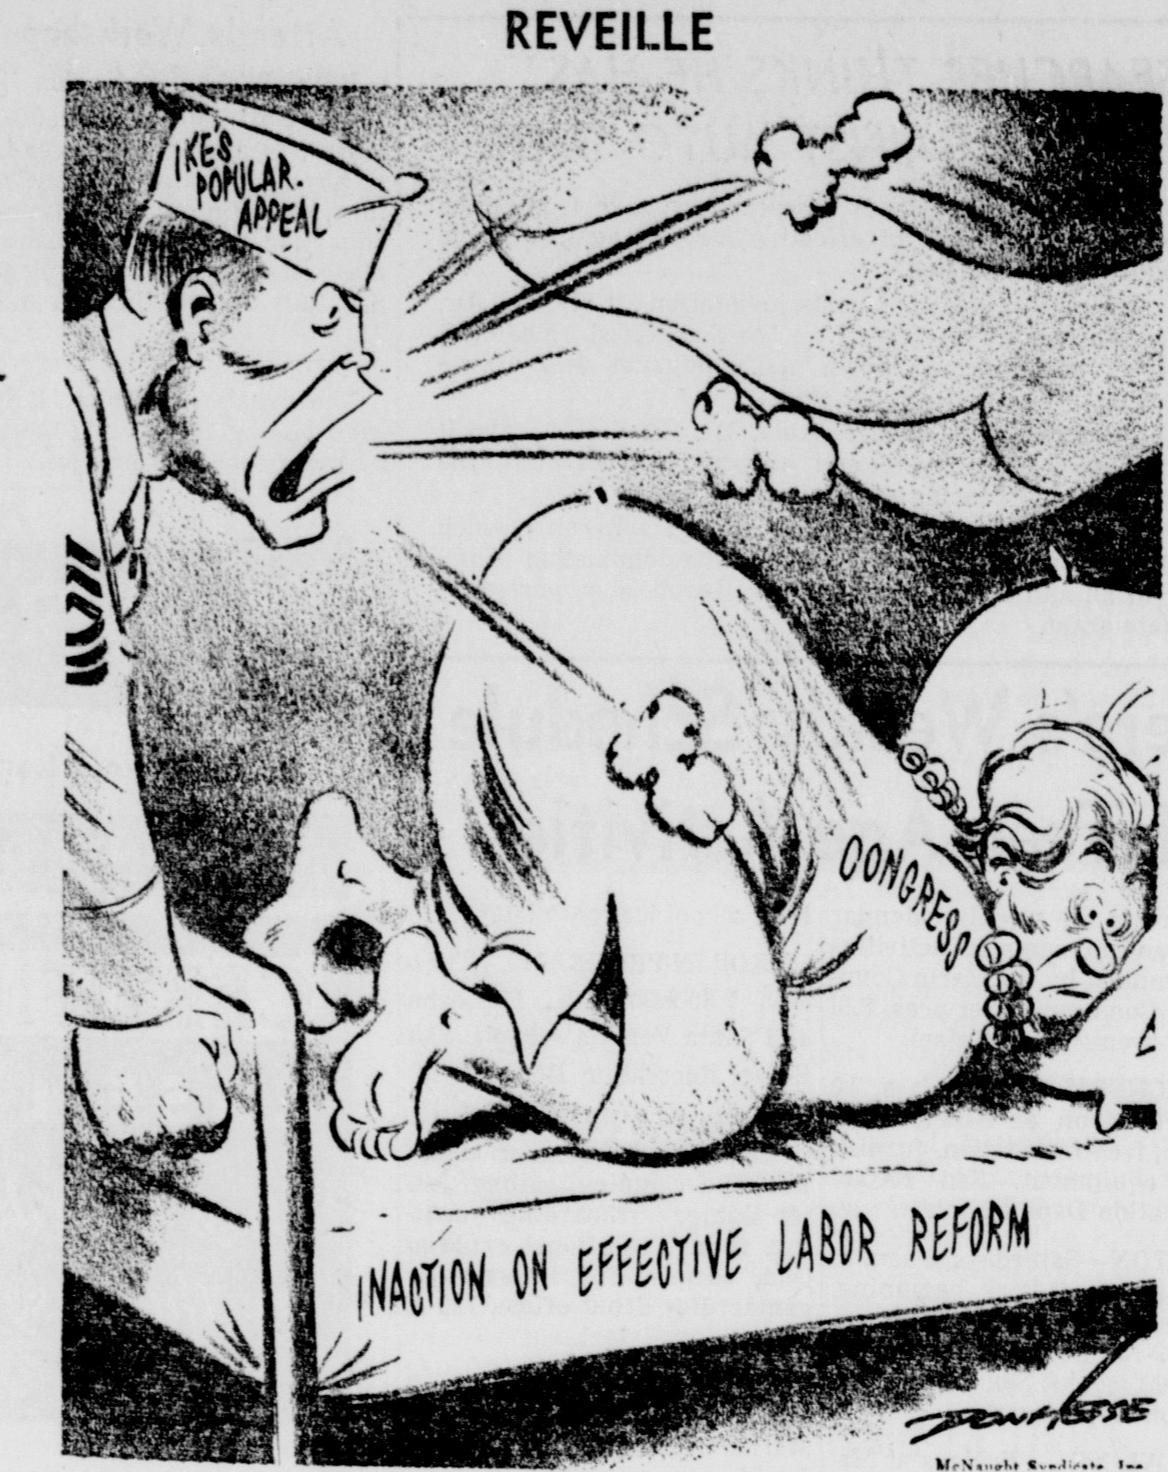

You can't get a ride in a two-tone gondola in Venice. These water-borne taxis, in use there for nearly a thousand years, are traditionally painted black.

IN MOST OF Europe convicts aren't given an added sentence for trying to make a prison break. Their desire to escape is taken as normal.

Old gags never die: Singer Lisa Kirk tells of the indignant woman who complained to the zookeeper that the monkeys were gambling at cards. "It's all right," soothed the keeper. "They're only playing for peanuts."

A democracy has been described as a country in which you can call the president anything you want to, but you have to be polite to the traffic cops.

Hill Haven Isn't Tract Or Subdivision It's Merely a 'Record Of Survey'

Dee Dee Abramson, our all-seeing Tiburon Peninsula correspondent, takes umbrage at our recent reference to Hill Haven where she lives, as a tract.

Not so, she says. It is a subdivision, implying that a tract falls into a lower social echelon.

No authority on semantics of this type, we consulted veteran engineer—surveyor Frank Comstock of Mill Valley who opined, diplomatically that any difference between the two is a matter of usage, citing cases where either word has been used.

Technically, he noted, tract is used to indicate an undeveloped area of land while subdivision suggests one surveyed into lots with streets, curbs, gutters, etc. He repeats, however, that this distinction is not uniformly followed.

For Dee Dee's benefit, Frank notes, Hill Haven at its formation in 1951 was neither a tract nor subdivision. It was a "record of survey" since the lots were a minimum acre in size and thus did not require the legal steps creating a subdivision.

Frank should know.

He surveyed the entire tract—subdivision—area—section or whatever it is.

WITH ALL THE nostalgic fanfare surrounding the arrival of the 60-year-old ferry "Berkeley" in Sausalito last week, its future site as a locale for Bill Conover's highly successful Trade Fair was left somewhat in the air.

Some reference was made to a location somewhere near Commodore Aviation. We hear, however, that it might even stay in its present ferry slip at the foot of El Portal Street, which is under lease to Madden and Lewis, thus remaining reasonably close to its present spot with parking space available.

Or it may go farther up the bay where it could rest on the mud and save some upkeep.

WITH ALL THE nostalgic fanfare surrounding the arrival of the 60-year-old ferry "Berkeley" in Sausalito last week, its future site as a locale for Bill Conover's highly successful Trade Fair was left somewhat in the air.

Some reference was made to a location somewhere near Commodore Aviation. We hear, however, that it might even stay in its present ferry slip at the foot of El Portal Street, which is under lease to Madden and Lewis, thus remaining reasonably close to its present spot with parking space available.

Or it may go farther up the bay where it could rest on the mud and save some upkeep.

All the while, city officials are scratching their heads and wondering how the increasing traffic problems will be solved

Hospital Needed For Olympics

EDITOR.

Independent-Journal:

I am writing this letter to protest the lack of hospital facilities available at the site of next winter's Olympic competition area in the High Sierra at Squaw Valley.

A weekend ago I picked up my 12-year-old daughter at the Tahoe Hospital at Truckee, where she was having care for a fractured ankle, which occurred at a summer camp nearby. Conversation with the hospital personnel revealed that this is the only hospital within a radius of 40 miles, it has only 25 beds available, and no arrangements have been made for expanding its facilities to accommodate the 35,000 spectators, visitors and competitors during the Olympic Games at Squaw Valley 10 miles away. This lovely little hospital is well equipped and efficiently staffed, but every bed was occupied even now, a non-peak time of the year.

What will the visiting Norwegian ski champion think as he lies in the snow outside of the hospital with his broken leg, unable even to get in through a window because of the hospital congestion?

What credit will be reflected upon our American system of medical service if an epidemic of food poisoning or upper respiratory infection lays low hundreds of people who cannot even be carried close to the hospital?

What opinion will be held of the medical preparations if the victims of automobile accidents must lie in the snow for hours before they can even get close to the hospital or be transported to distant cities?

Many additions are needed for the medical facilities, most pressing for example is the erection of two Quonset hut additions to the hospital, each accommodating 60 beds and having heat and light and running water. Appropriate medical and nursing personnel and pharmacy should be provided to accommodate this minimum number of beds.

Millions of dollars are being never tell them, "I'm sorry." For some reason — probably because they feel it is usually insincere — this is the phrase that infuriates them most.

When you enter a store for the first time, in which direction do you turn? About 79 per cent of Americans instinctively turn to the right.

Facts that will get you nowhere: You spend as much energy in opening and closing your eyes in a year as it would take to hoist an 8-year-old child to your shoulder once.

You can't get a ride in a two-tone gondola in Venice. These water-borne taxis, in use there for nearly a thousand years, are traditionally painted black.

IN MOST OF Europe convicts aren't given an added sentence for trying to make a prison break. Their desire to escape is taken as normal.

Old gags never die: Singer Lisa Kirk tells of the indignant woman who complained to the zookeeper that the monkeys were gambling at cards. "It's all right," soothed the keeper. "They're only playing for peanuts."

A democracy has been described as a country in which you can call the president anything you want to, but you have to be polite to the traffic cops.

Speaking of traffic cops, spent to construct a magnificent four-lane highway to this region. Millions are being spent in advertising and other measures to make the Olympic competition a success.

However a substantial sum should be invested in enlarging the present hospital accommodations, so that visiting athletes from foreign countries will not be neglected by our American free enterprise system of medicine.

Time is running out. This is an emergency situation because once the snow starts to fly in the High Sierras, conditions will deteriorate rapidly. The Communists have tried — and failed — to set up what they likely would consider an ideal situation for themselves in present circumstances. Banking on unwitting help from the United States, they now await a fresh opportunity.

To the Communists' delight, there has been a basic misconception of what they are up to in Cuba, and this tends to deflect U.S. attention from their immediate aims.

The Communists know — if many in the United States do not — that they are not strong enough to turn the island of Cuba into a Red satellite.

What they seek is a base for Red operations in the Caribbean and Latin America with complete freedom of action and communications. Cuba thus would be extremely valuable as a lever for creating turmoil all over the area.

THE COMMUNISTS tipped their hands July 17 when Fidel Castro resigned as premier in a maneuver to demonstrate his popularity with the masses.

Within two hours the Communists broadcast an appeal for a "government of national unity," meaning they wanted cabinet representation. They would have settled for one or two ministries and considered

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Jack Benny believes that the biggest, most sustained roar of laughter he ever evoked on TV came the evening an actor portraying a bandit poked a gun in his ribs and snarled, "Your money or your life."

When Benny didn't answer, he repeated, "I said your money or your life." Benny registered his famous long take, then answered, "I know, I know. I'm just trying to make up my mind."

On another Benny TV program, Jack was stopped by a lady who babbled, "Pardon me, my good man, but do you know the way to the public library?"

"I do not," admitted Benny. "Well," said the lady, "you go straight down this avenue for three blocks and then turn to the right. You can't miss it!"

MONEY OR YOUR LIFE?

...AND A MILLION MILES AWAY IDEOLOGICALLY!
...ONLY 11 HOURS FROM MOSCOW TO NEW YORK BY AIR...
...SAVING A MILLION MILES AWAY IDEOLOGICALLY!
...ONLY 11 HOURS FROM MOSCOW TO NEW YORK BY AIR...

INEXPERIENCE and amateurishness on the part of members of the regime help strengthen the Communists. Numerically they are not as strong today as they were in the early days of Fulgencio Batista's dictatorship, when they got their first real foothold.

At present the card-carrying Communists probably total about 12,000. Of these only a small number can be considered hard core, working for the interests of Moscow as transmitted by Jean Mariano, party president. Recently he was a glorified guest on a Communist block tour.

Laos To Seek U.N. Help In Red Rebellion

PARIS (UPI)—Special envoy Ngo Sananikone of Laos arrived in Paris today en route to New York to seek United Nations help against a Communist rebellion in his country.

Russia tried to block the move in advance. Moscow Radio charged the United States and Laotian governments were trying to stir up the war "under the pretext of setting up a so-called U.N. observers commission."

CONFICTING CLAIMS

North Viet Namese Communists claimed rebel Red forces in Laos had inflicted hundreds of casualties on government troops and captured a "vast amount" of territory. The Laotian government claims it has the situation in hand for the moment.

In Vientiane, capital of Laos, army commander Brig. Gen. Oun Rattikul said fighting still was going on in the northern provinces of Samneua and Phonsaly but that Laos forces had the upper hand.

He placed Laos losses at 100 but said the Communists had suffered at least 200 casualties.

REDS SENDING TROOPS

He said the Communists were sending troops from Dien Bien Phu, historic battle site of the Indochina war, just across the border in North Viet Nam.

But Sananikone said his government feared "grave repercussions" from the Communist rebellion.

"For that reason we have asked the United Nations to send neutral observers to the scene," he said.

He said the Communist Party had "from the beginning of its existence received directives and political and moral support from outside—and now even help in the way of men and materials."

New decongestant tablet for sinus congestion sufferers acts both to drain clogged sinus cavities and relieve distressing head pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) Announcement has been made of a new tablet development which has the remarkable ability to help drain clogged sinus cavities and thus relieve congestion and pressure. The headaches, pressure pains, stuffed-up head, nasal drip, clogged breathing—all the unrelenting symptoms the sinus sufferer knows so well—are attacked directly by improving drainage of the sinus areas.

Most remarkable of all is the fact that this is accomplished with extraordinary speed and without discomfort of any kind. This new tablet does its remarkable work internally, through the blood stream. It deposits into every drop of blood plasma a new medication which is carried to the sinus area, where it

49ERS OPEN SEASON WITH LAST-GASP WIN, 27-24

L.A., Braves Meet Today In Twin Bill

MILWAUKEE — The Los Angeles Dodgers, stalled on the second rung of the National League pennant ladder, take on the Milwaukee Braves in a doubleheader today.

Dodger Manager Walt Alston, who chewed out several regulars for lack of hustle, has selected fire-balling Sandy Koufax (6-2) and Stan Williams (4-5) for the pitching chores. They oppose Warren Spahn (15-11) and Bob Buhl (9-8).

The Dodgers remain 2½ games behind league-leading San Francisco after dropping a 5-3 game yesterday to St. Louis in the rain.

Before the game, Alston had "individual talks" with Don Zimmer, Ron Fairly, Charlie Neal and Jim Gilliam for failing to hustle in Saturday's 4-3 victory over the Cards.

"Ball players have only to run hard a few times a game," Alston told sports writers. "Sure, it was hot and humid, but that's no excuse. If a player's too tired to run, we'll get someone in there who isn't."

Yesterday's loss was the fourth in six games for the Dodgers on their current road trip.

St. Louis scored four fast runs off Roger Craig and then Bill White tagged reliever Clem Labine for a home run in the fifth inning. Chuck Churn, recalled by the Dodgers from their farm club at Spokane, then took over and held the Cards scoreless on two hits the rest of the way.

The Dodgers scored two runs in the third on singles by Neal and Duke Snider. Singles by Norm Larker, Fairly and Johnny Roseboro's sacrifice fly produced another Dodger run in the sixth. They scored the other tally in the eighth on Don Demeter's single and a double by Fairly.

Tittle-Conner Pass Scores The Winning TD In Final 9 Seconds

SAN FRANCISCO — The Bald Eagle — Yelberton Abraham Tittle—is still the brain and the arm of the San Francisco 49ers.

Old Y.A., starting his 12th professional season, dreamed up the pass play that gave the 49ers a dramatic 27-24 victory over the Washington Redskins Sunday with just nine seconds left in a National Football League exhibition.

The winning touchdown, on a 16-yard pass from quarterback Tittle to end Clyde Conner in the corner of the Redskins' end zone, came 50 seconds after a Washington touchdown had apparently sealed a 24-20 victory.

FINAL SECONDS

The Tittle brainstorm came in a time out as the 49ers were storming back up the field with just 15 seconds to play.

Tittle, the 49ers' captain, walked over to the sideline and asked Coach Red Hickey to take out rookie halfback Paul Lowe, a speedster who had dazzled the crowd of 21,201 with a brilliant 78-yard run on his first professional play.

The veteran quarterback told Hickey he wanted R. C. Owens to come into the game. With the gangling Owens as a decoy, Tittle figured, Conner could get loose for a pass.

On the next play, with four Redskins surrounding Owens, Conner evaded Washington down, with nine seconds left to play in yesterday's game with the Washington Redskins. Conner slipped into the end zone corner, eluding Redskin defender Bob Hudson, to take a perfect strike from the veteran Tittle.

Owens' Two-Run Homer Wins For Tiburon Pelicans

By GLENN BECKER

Catcher Hal Owens smacked a 340-foot home run with Mike Curry on base in the sixth inning to give the Tiburon Pelicans a 2-1 victory over their arch-rivals, the San Anselmo Ongaro Plumbers, yesterday. The game was played at Tiburon.

Owens' homer spelled the end to the Plumbers' 10-game winning streak, and also broke a skein of similar length for San Anselmo pitcher Bobby De Rosa. DeRosa lost a heart-breaking mound duel to the Pelicans' Fred Thurman, who hurled a fine four-hitter at the Plumbers.

The winning touch, on a 14-3 half-time lead with touchdowns on J. D. Smith's one-yard plunge and Lowe's 78-yard jaunt, Sam Baker kicked a 32-yard field goal for the Skins just before the half ended.

In the second half, Washington Coach Mike Nixon sent in his great little quarterback, Ed LeBaron.

With 10 bulls-eyes in 10 passes by LeBaron, Washington moved 80 yards in 12 plays after the kickoff and scored on LeBaron's 15-yard toss to end Joe Walton.

Rookie fullback Tommy Davis gave the 49ers a 17-10 lead with a 27-yard field goal but the Redskins tied the game at 17-all early in the fourth quarter on fullback Don Bosseler's two-yard dive over left guard.

REGAIN LEAD

The 49ers went ahead again 20-17 on Davis' second field goal, a 12-yarder.

Washington scored its last touchdown with only 59 seconds left when halfback Mike Sommer bounded off right tackle and dove into the 49er end zone.

But the 49ers moved 80 yards in five plays, taking just 50 seconds to do it. Then Tittle conceived his winning play.

Four exhibition games were played during the weekend. Each was a heart-palpitator.

It was the same story Saturday. Zeke Bratkowski's toss to Rick Casares with 41 seconds remaining gave the Chicago Bears a 19-16 victory over Green Bay.

John Crow went 71 yards for a TD in the final three minutes as Chicago's Cardinals edged Detroit 21-19. A 43-yard jaunt by Walt Kowalezyk midway of the final period provided the winning margin as Philadelphia defeated New York 21-17.

Two Indian Castoffs Aid Red Sox Win

They laughed last winter when Boston owner Tom Yawkey traded Jimmy Piersall, his flashy center fielder, to Cleveland for Gary Geiger, a nondescript flychaser, and Vic Wertz, a fading first baseman.

Joe Cronin, then the Red Sox general manager, and Mike Higgins, then the field manager, were in no mood for laughter. They were quite upset when Yawkey informed them of the deal—the first and only one he ever made.

"It's your club," was the substance of their lukewarm acceptance of the boss' trade.

"I'll take the responsibility," said Yawkey.

The Red Sox owner can take the bows today for one of the best player transactions ever made by the club.

BOTH HELPING

Geiger, only 22, has easily been the happiest development in the Red Sox' rebuilding program. The fast-developing youngster is hitting .279 with 10 home runs and 38 runs batted in. Wertz, though hampered by injuries, is hitting .280 with seven homers and 45 runs batted in. Piersall, who lost the regular center field job in Cleveland to Tito Francona, is hitting only .240 with three home runs and 21 runs batted in.

Geiger and Wertz played key roles in the Red Sox near-sweep of a four-game series with the New York Yankees. It wasn't their fault that the Yankees won the second game yesterday, 4-2, after the Red Sox had won the opener, 6-5.

Owens' homer spelled the end to the Plumbers' 10-game winning streak, and also broke a skein of similar length for San Anselmo pitcher Bobby De Rosa. DeRosa lost a heart-breaking mound duel to the Pelicans' Fred Thurman, who hurled a fine four-hitter at the Plumbers.

The Red Sox scored all their first game runs and made all their hits—six—in the second inning, inflicting the seventh loss upon Duke Maas. Wertz ignited the six-run rally with a single. Geiger drove in the run that broke a (3-3) tie with a 2-0 lead.

The Plumbers tallied their run in the eighth inning. Second baseman Don McGinnis singled to left. After shortstop Milt Hain fanned, right-fielder Pete Arrigoni lined a triple to center. But Thurman shut the door, getting Lou Campredon to pop up.

San Anselmo had one more chance in the ninth inning.

Brad Bryon opened it with a single to right, and was sacrificed to second by DeRosa. Tim Reardon lofted a soft line drive to second-baseball Bob Sapp. Sapp caught the ball, threw to second, and Bryon was picked off for the third and final out.

The two teams will meet again next Sunday at San Anselmo's Memorial Park diamond.

MANTLE HOMERS

Mickey Mantle provided the lusty hitting for New York. He drove in two runs with a home run, his 24th of the season, in the first inning and scored in the eighth after walloping a double off the bleacher wall, 461 feet away.

Home runs by Bob Cerv, Preston Ward and Russ Snyder helped veteran Ned Garver gain his ninth victory as Kansas City made it two in a row over the White Sox. Dick Donovan, making his first start for Chicago since he suffered a shoulder injury July 21, was the loser.

The 39-year-old promoter also resigned as president. It turned out that Rosensohn had only one-third of the stock held by the company and two-thirds was owned by lawyer Vincent Veilella of New York.

SOX LOSE

Kansas City defeated Chicago 7-2 and narrowed the White Sox first place lead over Cleveland to three games.

The Indians lost an opportunity to pick up more ground when a violent rainstorm in Detroit postponed their game in the second inning after they had scored five runs in the first.

Washington won the opener, 6-5.

The Red Sox scored all their first game runs and made all their hits—six—in the second inning, inflicting the seventh loss upon Duke Maas. Wertz ignited the six-run rally with a single. Geiger drove in the run that broke a (3-3) tie with a 2-0 lead.

The pair, whose homers had highlighted Boston's winning nine-run rally against the Yankees Friday night, acquitted themselves nobly in yesterday's second game. Trailing 3-1 in the sixth, the Red Sox came within an eyelash of tying the score. Geiger opened with a single, his third hit.

After Pete Runnels singled, Wertz drove Geiger home with a long single, sending Runnels to third. Jackie Jensen smashed a grounder toward left field but shortstop Cletis Boyer converted it into an inning-ending double play with a fine stop.

OSCAR FRALEY'S COLUMN

Wynn Looms As Top MVP Contender

NEW YORK (UPI)—The next time Early Wynn pitches victory for the Chicago White Sox it will put him in a tie with Bob Feller and ancient Eppa Rixey as the 16th winningest pitcher in baseball history—while at the same time making him an outstanding candidate for most valuable player honors.

If the White Sox win the American League pennant, as they well may, the burly six-footer from Alabama has to be one of the prime candidates for the award. The danger is that the votes may be split among him and such teammates as Nellie Fox and Luis Aparicio to let such as Washington's Harmon Killebrew or Cleveland's Rocky Colavito move in and take over.

But they won't be able to take away Wynn's place in the baseball history book.

There is no telling how high

Adm. Halsey Dies In Sleep At 76

FISHERS ISLAND, N. Y. (UPI)—Fleet Adm. William F. (Bull) Halsey, 76, commander of the 3rd Fleet in the Pacific during World War II and leader of America's first offensive move after Pearl Harbor, died yesterday in his sleep.

The implacable fighter who had carried his attacks to the Japanese homeland by the end of the war was pronounced dead of a coronary occlusion.

His body was flown to New York City from this small island off the Connecticut coast where he was vacationing, and was to be taken to Washington today. Final funeral arrangements were delayed pending arrival of his family at the nation's capital.

President Eisenhower, in a statement released at Gettysburg, Pa., said he had lost "a personal friend" and "all Americans have lost one of their great natural leaders."

It was Halsey who vowed while the war was raging that he would ride the Japanese Emperor's White Horse through the streets of Tokyo. He did not keep that promise, but he did push the war to the emperor's doorsteps.

"Hit hard, hit fast, hit often" were his orders.

Halsey was graduated from Annapolis in 1904. He commanded a destroyer force in the Atlantic and won the Navy Cross during World War I, qualified as a flier in 1934—when he was 52—and rose to the rank of vice admiral by 1940.

He was made a full admiral after his 1942 victory in the Solomon Islands.

He married the former Frances Cooke Grandy in 1909. She survives, as do a son, a daughter and six grandchildren.

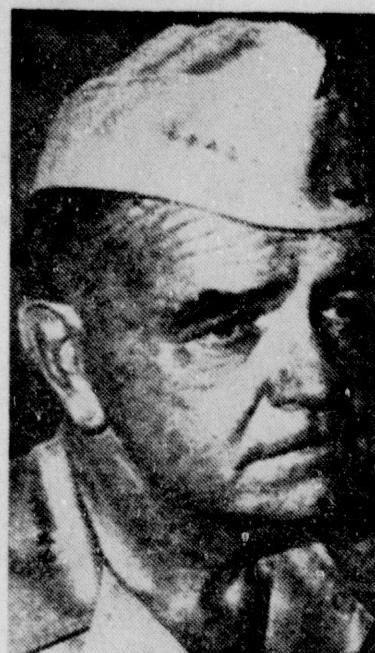

"He was one of our greatest fighting admirals," Gen. Douglas MacArthur said yesterday, "and his name and his fame will always be associated with our great victory over Japan."

Clean-Up Drive

Anita Friedman of 353 Montford avenue, Mill Valley, a student at Tamalpais High School, and Morgan Yamanaka of 171 San Carlos avenue, Sausalito, activities director for San Francisco's Mission Neighborhood Center, took part in a recent clean-up campaign at Dingleberry Lake in the Inyo National Forest.

The campaign was conducted by the Sierra Club.

In 1940-41 the United States National Guard brought into Federal Service 300,034 men in organized and trained units.

HARTFORD, Conn. (UPI)—George and Tania Trojanowski's wedding went off as scheduled Saturday.

A party followed, as scheduled, and then police arrived, unscheduled.

One of the invited guests, according to police, was hit with a bottle by the bridegroom. Another guest, trying to quiet the two, was stabbed in the arm with a fork.

The bride and bridegroom, along with the peacemaker and the bottle-bopping victim, were taken to police headquarters. First aid was administered. Breach of peace charges were lodged.

George and Tania spent the night at the jail in separate cells.

Segregated Classes Asked In Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI)—A brand new weapon was unlimbered in the Little Rock school battle today—segregated classes in an integrated school.

School officials rescheduled classes for Ann McLeod, one of 700 white students at Hall High, so she won't have to sit with any of the three Negro girls who entered Hall last week.

LITTLE KNOWN LAW
Ann's father, attorney John A. McLeod Jr., invoked a little-noted state law to get segregated classes for his daughter. School officials agreed the law passed with a batch of other segregation measures in the 1958 special legislature, was valid. The law says no student can be forced to sit in the same classroom with person of another race.

An attorney for the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, Wiley Branton of Pine Bluff, said the NAACP would go to court to fight any attempt to segregate Negro students in class.

OKLAHOMA CASE

He said the U. S. Supreme Court had ruled in an Oklahoma case that a Negro, once admitted to an integrated school, could not be segregated within the school.

School board secretary Ted L. Lamb said McLeod's request was the only one received so far. He said he hoped not many others would follow.

Cosmetics And Girdles Could Aid International Relations

BY DOROTHY ROE

If Soviet women could be supplied with American lipstick, cosmetics and girdles, international friendship would take a big jump.

Such is the opinion of Michael Daroff, men's clothing manufacturer of New York, just returned from a visit to the American Exhibition in Moscow. Daroff was a member of the committee of men's wear manufacturers who contributed to the U.S. fashion show at the fair, and was on hand for a week after the opening.

"When we left she went with us to the airport, and really broke down and cried when it was time to say goodbye. I know there is one Russian girl who has been converted to the idea of American friendship."

Russian women wear no cosmetics, says Daroff, who also observes that apparently foundation garments are unknown in the Soviet Union.

"Big hips seem to be a measure of feminine beauty in Russia. If a girl doesn't occupy two chairs when seated, Russian men say she is too skinny," he said.

If Soviet women are badly dressed, according to American standards, the men are in the same state, says this men's wear maker, naturally interested in men's styles abroad.

"Even in the best hotels and night clubs, the men wear sports shirts and pants — no ties or jackets, except among the official groups," he said.

"Our American group was entertained by the Moscow Board of Trade at a luncheon, and there the men wore suits and ties. But almost everywhere else we went the standard dress for men seemed to be shirt-sleeves — and sports shirts at that."

"But before the week was Woodwardia Circle of Neighbors of Woodcraft held its first meeting of August recently at the LOOF Temple in San Rafael. Initiation was held and Mrs. Mable Carlson of Novato was welcomed as a new member of the Circle.

Mrs. Herbert Betz, a former resident of San Rafael, now living in Lake County, and Mrs. Lottie Holbrook were present.

An Oriental theme was carried out both in the lodge hall and in the dining room. Simulated cherry blossoms and gaily decorated parasols graced the tables.

Mrs. Esther Lewis announced that the next Thimble Club meeting would be held tomorrow in the patio of the home of Mrs. John Bernards. Mrs. Frank Linebaugh announced that the next Guards' meeting would be held at her home on Wednesday with Mrs. Harry Cahill as co-hostess.

Mrs. Lottie Holbrook was initiated into Woodwardia Circle and has not only filled all of the officers' chairs, but was Captain of the Guards for about 10 years, and also was a Grand Representative of the Grand Lodge.

Visitors were Mrs. E. Taylor and Mrs. J. Saterlee, both members of the Circle in Richmond. The chairman of the committee for the evening was Mrs. Harry

Some 1,500 delegates and guests are expected to attend the gala States Dinner in the spacious St. Paul Auditorium where skaters will perform a dazzling show on ice.

Teenagers Need Some Rules To Take With Them On Dates

Do you want your teen-agers to have dates? Want them to learn how to be popular with the opposite sex? Then they'll be able to choose good spouses, and live happy lives. Dates are important.

But our teen-agers need rules. We can't turn them loose without guidance. It is true that no set of rules will work with boys and girls who want to be bad. They'll be bad in spite of everything. But most of our teen-agers are good. They want to do the right things. Rules help them stay good.

I've been meeting with a group of young people. Together we worked out some new dating rules. The youngsters say that reasonable teenagers everywhere will accept them. I believe these rules are the minimum parents can accept. How do they sound to you?

1. Normally parents should know and approve in advance the boy or girl their son or daughter is dating. If it is a blind date they should know who is arranging it and what sort of date can be expected.

2. Parents should know and approve where their young people are going. They should be able to check on the chaperoning. They should not approve gatherings where drinking is apt to occur, or improper conduct of any sort.

3. Parents and teen-agers together should set the hour for the return home. If the hour needs to be changed at the last minute, the teen-agers should phone their parents and get their approval.

These rules need to be adjusted to the teen-ager's age and responsibility. The hour of returning home, for example, should be earlier for a 14-year-old than an 18-year-old. And responsible kids should have more freedom than impulsive ones.

Mill Valley Man Jailed For Battery

"No one can sleep around here," a Woodland avenue resident phoned San Rafael police at 3 Saturday morning.

The cause lay in dissension between Sidney William Floto, 24, of 112 Sycamore avenue, Mill Valley, and his former wife Beverly Arleta Dale, 45 Woodland avenue, San Rafael.

Mrs. Dale told police Floto was responsible for her bleeding nose, swollen face and body bruises.

He was booked on a charge of assault and battery.

When police checked up, they found that two traffic warrants are outstanding against Floto and they said prosecution is planned on these also.

ONLY ONE IN WEST

Unusual Sierra Summer Camp

Is Retreat For Diabetic Kids

FRESNO (UPI) — Take some mountains, sprinkle heavily with pine trees, add summer fun with youngsters who need daily injections of insulin and special diets, and you have Camp Whitaker — a Sierra retreat for diabetic children.

The camp, located 60 miles southeast of Fresno in the Sierra, is owned by the University of California and managed by the Diabetic Youth Foundation. It is the only summer camp for diabetic children in the West.

Attending this year are 151 boys and girls from 6 to 16 years old. Their homes range from Alaska to Oklahoma.

"The medical problems involved are too much for other camps to assume," says Dr. Mary B. Olney of San Francisco, who founded the program 21 years ago.

Her idea is "to take the diabetic to camp to learn the discipline of being a good diabetic."

She and Dr. Ellen Simpson, professor of pediatrics at the University of California, have a staff of registered nurses and counselors.

The counselors, some of whom are also diabetics and betes," says Dr. Simpson. "Somehow they are set apart in their daily lives. Here, they feel more normal and learn more about living with their malady."

The foundation, with headquarters in San Francisco, plans to purchase its own camp next summer. It will be about nine miles from the present site.

Market Wins Prize

Brice Bros., operating the Marin Town and Country Market in Mill Valley, were among winners of $50 third prizes in a nationwide contest of Libby frozen food retailers conducted by Libby McNeill and Libby, according to J. E. Stanton, western division manager for Libby.

Marin Student Leaves For Period In Italy

John C. Chambers, 17-year-old Redwood High School student from Kent Woodlands, was to leave for Italy today to spend the first half of his senior year living with an Italian family whose son was an exchange student last year in North Carolina.

The youth, son of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Chambers of 7 Turnagain road, has been signed by the American Field Service to live with Mr. and Mrs. Augusto Montanari and their son, Alberto, 18, of Milan. Alberto attended a North Carolina high school last year under AFS auspices. Chambers will study at the Liceo Gin- nasio, classic high school of Milan, as an AFS exchange student.

Chambers, a science and mathematics major at Redwood, will be accompanied to New York by his father. En route, they will visit the campuses of California Institute of Technology, Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Harvard and Princeton universities. Young Chambers will sail from Montreal Aug. 26.

THIRTY-YEAR MARK — Everett A. (Iver) Iversen, loan supervision department vice president at Bank of America's head office in San Francisco, is marking 30 years service with the bank this month. He started his career in his hometown, Healdsburg. Iversen, with his wife, Lucy, and a daughter, Linda, reside at 309 Point San Pedro road.

BOOSTERS SAY:

Cooperative Housing Can Fill Big Need

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Enthusiasts think cooperative housing is one solution for people whose income is too high for public housing but too low to meet regular mortgage payments.

Co-op housing is said to be their best way to secure shelter and ultimate ownership at modest monthly cost.

The Cooperative League of the U.S.A. estimates that about 70,000 families in 38 states live in co-op housing projects.

SMALL PORTION

But they represent a tiny portion of all middle income families, according to the League. It reports that families with incomes from $3,000 to $7,500 represent about half the nation's population of 177 million.

"These families are the backbone of America, but 11,300,000 (46 per cent) of them do not own their own homes," the League says. Many of them "simply cannot afford to buy a home at today's prices."

These families might be able to acquire home ownership if they pooled their resources in a cooperative venture, co-op supporters point out.

ONE-FAMILY CO-OPS

Most co-op housing has been built for more than one-family. But some single-family co-op projects have also been built.

In essence, co-op housing means that the occupants themselves have jointly arranged for the construction and financing of their dwelling. Thus, they eliminate what might be called the landlord's profit.

Co-op housing has been able to cut costs in another way — interest on mortgages. In 1950 the Federal Housing Administration began insuring mortgages on co-op housing. It set maximum interest rates below generally prevailing market rates.

CURRENT RATES

These rates are now 4 1/2 per cent on rental co-op housing and 5 per cent on sales housing.

Housing and other co-op enterprises usually follow the rule that the venture's affairs are controlled by the members. Each member in a co-op project has one vote. In housing co-ops, a family counts as a member.

Another common practice, especially among housing co-ops, is to return to the members any money surplus that accrues if aggregate monthly payments exceed the project's expenses. The refund either takes the form of a lump sum or a reduction in future monthly charges.
